

A. Library Sources

1. Books can be located in two areas
 - a. AHS Library Computer Catalogue Systems
 - b. Books in Print, a two-volume catalogue that lists all the books currently in print arranged alphabetically by subject.
2. Periodicals (magazines, newspaper, journals)
 - a. The Reader's Guide to Periodical Literature
Sample entry:
"The Games". R. Newman. Sport. 31:14. D '67
(title) (author) (mag) (vol:pg.) (date)
 - b. Other periodical indexes for special journals
 - c. Infotrac and other computer online services
3. Reference works
 - a. General Encyclopedias -Look up your subject in the index of the encyclopedia (the last volume in the set). There you will find several articles related to your subject.
 - b. Other reference books, including:
 1. Dictionary of Music
 2. Encyclopedia of Social Science
 3. Companion to Classical Literature
 4. Computer online services

B. Non-Library Sources

1. Individual authorities
 - Organizations
 - Government agencies
 - Clubs
 - Companies

- Interviews
- How to List Sources
- Numbered
- 8+ sources
- 3 of 4 areas

- Form
 - a. Books: Author or editor (last name first), title (underlined), place of publication: publisher, date of publication, service note.
 - b. Periodicals: Author (last name first), title of article (in quotation marks), name of magazine (underlined), number, date, page, service note.
 - c. Reference works: Author (last name first), title of article (within quotation marks), title of reference work (underlined), edition, volume, date of publication, pages, service note

- Non-library sources:
 - Authorities - Name of authority, subject matter of intended interview, approximate time and place of interview, service note
 - Organizations - Name of organization, title of pamphlets or subject matter of literature supplied, service note.
 - Observations - Description of proposed observation including purposes and procedures, service note.

Assignment: Write 3-4 source cards from three different types, using the proper format.